

As a result of the continuing hot dry weather, the Manchester Water Works is alerting its customers in the greater Manchester area that they should begin a voluntary reduction of outdoor water use. With the month of July continuing the below average precipitation pattern that we have seen during the spring and early summer, rainfall since April is down nearly six inches from normal.

For Full Press Release open the attachment below: